

教區聖召委員會

Diocesan Vocation Commission

週年報告

Annual Report

二零一六年十月至二零一七年九月

October 2016 – September 2017

Contents

Annual Report

1. Projects on Vocation Promotion	3
1.1 Publicity of the Prayer For Vocations Movement	3
1.2 Open Day of St. Joseph’s Home for the Aged – Vocation Promotion Activity
1.3 Walk for Vocations 2016	4
1.4 “Heed Ye Breeze Sing Ye Hymns” – Gatherings	5
1.5 DVC Website and Facebook	6
1.6 Vocations News Express	7
1.7 Teaching Materials for Vocation Promotion	7
2. Vocation Month Celebration
2.1 Walk for Vocations 2.0	10
2.2 Vocation Mass & Sharing at Hong Kong Island	11
2.3 Vocation Mass & Sharing at Kowloon	12
2.4 Vocation Mass & Sharing at New Territories	13
2.5 “God is calling me ” A Radio Broadcasting Program	15
3 Meetings for Vocation Discernment	16
4. Workshop for Vocation Promoters and Animators	17
5. Closing Remarks	18
6. Appendix – List of Committee Members	19

Annual Report

1. Projects on Vocation Promotion

1.1 Publicity of the Prayer Campaign for Vocations

Since last year Auxiliary Bishop Joseph Ha and seminarians of the Holy Spirit Seminary have been enthusiastically promoting the campaign after Sunday Mass celebration at different parishes and at talks on various occasions. Membership is now over 2000.

Evaluation: Incomplete or inaccurate information given on the registration forms resulted in the loss of contact with some members. Those accessible by email or by post are less than 2000.

1.2 Open Day of St Joseph's Home for the Aged ---- Vocation Promotion Activity

Date: 6 November 2016

Time: 9:00 am - 3:00 pm

Venue: St Joseph's Home for the Aged, Sheung Shui

Participants: Auxiliary Bishop Joseph Ha, Sr. Catherine Fung, Sr M. Margarita Chan, Franciscan Missionary Sisters of Our Lady of Sorrows, Br. Anthony Law, Friar Vincent Leung (Order of Friars Minor in Hong Kong), Salesian Youth.

Content: Visitors were treated with home-baked banana cakes prepared by the Franciscan Missionary Sisters of Our Lady of Sorrows. They were encouraged to register as members of the Prayer Campaign For Vocations. When show time came, Bishop Ha, The Little Sisters of the Poor, the Franciscan Missionary Sisters of Our Lady of Sorrows and the seminarian Mr. Anthony Law entertained visitors with their singing. The Salesian Youth also performed their Action Song.

Evaluation: Though there were not too many visitors, the Open Day served as an opportunity to promote DVC to the laity especially at Sheung Shui. They appreciated the multi-talents of consecrated religious as demonstrated by the performances of the Bishop and the sisters and they totally enjoyed the delicious refreshment prepared with love by the Franciscan sisters.

1.3 Walk for Vocations 2016

Date: 26 December 2016

Time: 3:00 pm – 6:00 pm

Venue: Holy Spirit Seminary

Attendants: There were about 1,000 participants, including John Cardinal Tong Hon, Auxiliary Bishop Joseph Ha Chi-Shing, 23 concelebrant priests, 4 deacons, members of the prayer movement, parishioners, ‘Walk for Vocations’ teams from Hong Kong Tang King Po College, Immaculate Heart of Mary College, School & Kindergarten. Committee members included Fr. Carlos Cheung, Dn. Simon Tam, Sr. Clement Fan, Sr. Catherine Fung, Sr. Sandra Covini, Sr. Margarita Chan, Mr. Peter Lee, Mr. Vitus Tai, Ms. Joan Li, Ms. Ho Tak Fan, seminarians including Anthony Law, Timothy Yan, Henry Chau, Jason Lee, volunteers Sherman Kwok, members of Touch, Daniel Cheung, Timothy Lau, parishioners of St. Peter’s Church.

Content: Rosary, Eucharistic Adoration and Mass Celebration. About 20 parishes and a number of Catholic schools joined the event. They were invited to design their own routes for a walk of at least one hour that would end up at the Holy Spirit Seminary in Aberdeen. Some started their journey from the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Caine Road, via Bowen Road, Wan Chai Gap Road and the Aberdeen Reservoirs reserve. Some kicked off from the Peak Galleria and walked the Hong Kong Trail. Some simply started from St Peter’s in Aberdeen. As they came together at the seminary, there was the praying of the Rosary at about 2pm followed by the Eucharistic adoration prior to the celebration of Mass by Cardinal Tong at 4pm. Cardinal Tong shared how he responded to the call of God. As this year's gathering fell on the feast of the first martyr of Christianity, St. Stephen, Cardinal Tong urged people to follow St Stephen's example of responding bravely to God's call while living a meaningful & fruitful life.

Evaluation: At the beginning, response to the event was poor even when approaching the deadline of the registration. It was only until Bishop Ha initiated the call for "Walk for Vocations with Bishop Ha," together with the committee members' strenuous effort calling every parish priest for support, the number of participants started flowing in especially from parishes of the New Territories. Communities of the English-speaking laity also joined. Total participants even outnumbered that of last year.

Lesson learned: After event promotion, it is vital to conduct direct personal follow-up calls to solicit support. Besides, when planning for future events, the venue setting and route signs to the washrooms need to be improved.

1.4 "Heed Ye Breeze Sing Ye Hymns"- Gatherings

Date: 2016: 24/9 , 22/10 , 26/11;

2017: 25/2 , 25/3 , 22/4 , 27/5 , 24/6.

Time: 6:30 pm - 9:00 pm

Venue: Holy Spirit Seminary

Main theme: Contemporary Saints: St. Pio of Pietrelcina, Bl.

Gabriele M. Allegra, St. Andrew Kim Taegon, St. Rafael Arnáiz Barón, Sanctus Ioannes Paulus PP. II Magnus, St. Josephine Bakhita, St Jeanne Jugan, St. Faustina.

Speaker : Br. Yeung Yim OFM, Bishop Joseph Ha Chi-Shing OFM, VG, Sr. Teresa Chan FMM, Fr. Giles Chong OCSO, Fr. Joseph Liu, Sr. Catherine Fung FDCC, Sr. Clement Fan LSP, Sr. Margaret Mou SPB.

Participants: Average number of participants at each event was 35, including members of the prayer campaign, Serra Club, young Catholics, students, sisters and Fr. Pierre Lam Minh, Seminarians from the Holy Spirit Seminary: Henry Cha, John Cheung, Joseph Cai, Anthony Law, Timothy Yan, Jason Lee. Committee Members included Bishop Joseph Ha Chi-Shing, OFM, VG, Sr. Catherine Fung, FDCC, Sr. Sandra Covini, PIME, Sr. Clement Fan, Sr. Margarita Chan, FMA , Mr. Peter Lee. Volunteers: Leo Yu and members of Taize' Prayer group , Sherman Kwok and members of Touch.

Content: Sharing on the life of the contemporary saints, Taize prayer, Eucharistic Adoration, Sacrament of Reconciliation, individual spiritual guidance.

Evaluation: In the first few events participation rates were satisfactory, even out numbering last year's "Dating the Holy Spirit." Together with the assured attendance of members from the two groups responsible for the Taize prayers, it seemed that scheduling events at evening time was a good choice. However the significant drop in participation at the last few events proofed the notion wrong. During the time for individual spiritual guidance, participants sought psychological counseling rather than religious discernment which missed its original purpose.

1.5 DVC Website and Facebook

The content of the Website and Face Book was updated weekly once to twice and more often when there were inspiring messages or during festive periods. The average number of Website visitors per month was about 110 in the past year and there were over 1,298 "Likes" on the Face Book.

Evaluation: There were significantly more visitors at our Facebook which has gradually increased its popularity.

1.6 Vocations News Express

The monthly “News Express” sent via emails continues to share updates of vocations in the Diocese or Religious Institutes with all members of the prayer campaign. This strengthens our bonding and relates them to the fruits of their prayers.

1.7 Teaching Materials for Vocation Promotion

1.7.1 Workshop on Teaching Materials for Vocation Promotion

Date: 15 October 2016

Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm

Venue: Po Chiu Catholic Secondary School

Participants: 28 including students, teachers, Mr. Wong Chi Wai of Nam Wah Catholic Secondary School, Mr. Tsang Ka Lok George, the chief editor of the teaching material titled “Life: Decision/ With Choices” .

Workshop instructors:

School Supervisors – Sr. M. Lucy Chung, Mr. Peter Lee

Principals – Mr. Chan Wing Kin, Sr. Anita Kwok, Mr. Lee Kim Wah

Teacher – Mr. Chow Yuk Kwan

Committee members – Auxiliary Bishop Joseph Ha

Chi-Shing, Bro. John Chong, Sr. Teresa Chan, Sr. M. Margarita Chan.

Content: Mr. George Tsang Ka Lok, the chief editor of the teaching material titled “Life: Decision/ With Choices” shared how to apply the teaching materials in the school context. Mr. Wong Chi Wai, teacher of Religious Studies of Nam Wah Catholic Secondary School, together with his 22 students, had adopted the teaching materials in class and they shared their experience. Other teachers in the workshop were divided into 3 groups. They were asked to simulate on how to adopt the teaching materials in classrooms and to design a teaching plan for such purpose.

Evaluation: The workshop went smoothly. Mr. George Tsang Ka

Lok, the chief editor of the teaching material, shared his experience in his Alma Mater, a Salesian school. He helped participants to draw up lesson plans in their own school context. The sharing of Mr. Wong Chi Wai and his student group was lively and inspiring. The workshop seemed to have achieved its aim of encouraging Catholic schools to include the vocation teaching materials in the curriculum for Religious Studies and Life Education, or activities of the Catholic Society or religious groups in parishes.

1.7.2 Continuous Development of the Vocation Curriculum – Partnering with Schools

Purpose: The publication of the teaching material "Life: Decision/with Choices" was the kick-off project for vocation promotion in school since 2016. For the further development of the teaching material, the 2016-2017 scheme of "Fostering Religious Calling at School" aimed at coordinating and engaging the volunteering educational professionals to cultivate and to enhance awareness of religious calling. This is one step forward to incorporate vocation education into the school campus.

Date:	2016-12-14	2017-1-4
Time:	2 pm	3 pm
Venue	DMHC Siu Ming Secondary School	Nam Wah Catholic Secondary School
Participants	Mr. Shi Kwok Chung Sr. M. Margarita Chan Mr. Tsang Ka Lok Mr. Cheung Ka Lok	Mr. Wong Chi Wai Sr. M. Margarita Chan Mr. Tsang Ka Lok Mr. Cheung Ka Lok

Content: Both teachers had incorporated the teaching materials into their Religious Moral & Ethics lessons, adapting them to their school culture and environment. The adapted content, worksheets and reference materials would be passed onto the editor for enrichment of the current curriculum guide and ultimately shared with other religious teachers.

Evaluation: Teacher Mr. Sze Kwok Chung raised his concern for some fundamental issues which need to be addressed by the school and the Church:

1. Being the target group of these teaching material, the population of Catholic students must grow. This would help in the future development of the teaching material.
2. Promotion of religious vocation will be in vain without the active practicing of the Catholic faith by Catholic students.

Teacher, Mr. Wong Chi Wei suggested that:

1. There should be an extended course and curriculum;
2. More laity formation work is necessary

1.7.3 “Awakening Tour to the Call of LOVE”

Purpose: To gather all Catholic teachers or members of the Catechism Classes from primary and secondary schools to know more about religious vocations via personal encountering and experience sharing, with the hope to create at schools an ambiance in search of religious vocations.

Date: 8 April 2017

Time: 10:00 am to 3:00 pm

Participants: 12 teachers from 8 schools, 1 Sunday school Teacher. Committee Member included Bishop Joseph Ha Chi-Shing, OFM, Sr. Clement Fan, Sr. Margarita Chan.

Contents: The activity started with a visit to the dormitory at Aberdeen Technical School. Fr. Simon Lam introduced the charisma of the Salesians of Don Bosco. Fr. Carlos Cheung elaborated on their work of promoting priesthood. The second stop in the day was the visit to the St. Mary's Home for the Aged managed by The Little Sisters of the Poor. Sr. Hui and Sr. Lau introduced their charisma, their formation program and apostolic work. The third stop was the Holy Spirit Seminary. Bishop Joseph Ha introduced the diocesan priest formation program. A seminarian shared his own experience in hearing his call.

Evaluation: This was the first attempt to conduct such training to educators for vocation. The number of participants was at the bare minimum for the event.

Two significant points of were observed at evaluation:

1. Promotion of the activity could start one week earlier;
2. Feedback of participants was very positive and the event had served its purpose. Similar events could be organized again with some fine-tuning for further development of the program.

2. Vocation Month Celebration

2.1 Walk for Vocations 2.0

Theme: Pray for Vocations with Our Lady

Date: 6 May 2017

Time: 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm

Venue: Holy Spirit Seminary

Chief Celebrant: Bishop Joseph HA Chi-Shing, OFM, VG

Participants: Approximately 200 people attended including parishioners, members of the prayer movement, youths of the Hong Kong East Deanery, parishioners of St. Peter's Church, members of Serra Club. Committee Members included Br. John Chong, FMS, Sr. Clement Fan, Sr. Catherine Fung, FDCC, Mr. Peter Lee, Mr. Vitus Tai, Ms. Ho Tak Fan, Miss Joan Li.

Content: Bishop Joseph Ha Chi-Shing, OFM, VG began the event by a talk at St. Mary's Home of the Aged. As this year is the 100th anniversary of Our Lady of Fatima's apparition, he reiterated Our Lady's message to participants on making reparation for our sins. After the talk, attendees were led by the statue of Our Lady and paraded to the Holy Spirit Seminary located on Welfare Road, while praying the rosary along the way. After they arrived at the seminary, Ms. Ho Tak Fan (a Committee Member) and Mr. Jason Lee (a seminarian) delivered a sharing on vocation formation at home and emphasized that home is the prime cradle for vocations. The event ended with prayers and songs of praise to Our Blessed Mother.

Evaluation: The success of the Vocation Walk 2.0 attributed to the effort of seminarians at the Holy Spirit Seminary, youths of the Hong Kong East Deanery and parishioners of St. Peter's Church. Attendees felt the rosary prayers very meaningful. We anticipate similar prayer gathering in the vocation month in 2018.

2.2 Vocation Mass and Sharing at Hong Kong Island

Date: 7 May 2017 (Sunday)

Time: 11:00 a.m.

Venue: Holy Cross Church

Chief Celebrant: Bishop Joseph Ha Chi-Shing, OFM, VG,

Concelebrants: Rev. Francis Lau, Rev. Pasini Giorgio, Rev.

Jomon Varghese.

Participants: About 600 people attended the mass and about 400 people joined the sharing session that followed. Attendees included members of the prayer campaign, parishioners of the church, members of youth ministries and Siera Club.

Committee members included Sr. Catherine Fung, FDCC, Mr. Peter Lee, Mr. Vitus Tai, Miss Joan Li

Content: During the homily, Bishop Joseph Ha Chi-Shing, OFM, VG recalled his experience of responding to his vocation. He said the most important things in our life is to participate in God's work and to live a fulfilling life with God. He encouraged young people to follow Jesus as their role model, be open, listen to His voice and be willing to follow Him. After the mass, there was a gathering on vocation sharing. Mr. Law Wan Tat, a diocesan seminarian shared his amazing experience when attending Spain's World Youth's Day. The event inspired him to discern for his vocation after he returned to Hong Kong. Sr. Catherine Fung, FDCC shared that the Lord called her parents first and led her to receive different types of formation. She encouraged Catholic parents to pray for their children to become religious people. Participants asked questions on topics such as how parental support should be perceived as well as on dating and relationships.

2.3 Vocation Mass and Sharing at Kowloon

Date: 14 May 2017 (Sunday)

Time: 10:00 am to 12:30 pm

Venue: Rosary Church

Chief Celebrant: Bishop Joseph Ha Chi-Shing, OFM, VG.

Concelebrants: Rev. Michael Sloboda

Assisted by: Rev. Deacon Francis Fung, Rev. Deacon Simon Tam.

Participants: About 500 people attended the mass and about 100 people joined the sharing session after the mass.

Attendees included parishioners, members of the prayer campaign, members of Serra Club, religious sisters, parents and students of Immaculate Heart of Mary School. Committee members included Sr. Catherine Fung, Sr. Teresa Chan, FMM, Sr. Margarita Chan, FMA, and Jason Lee, seminarian of Holy Spirit Seminary.

Content: During the homily, Bishop Ha shared with the congregation that God calls selected people in times of need to evangelize the world and to witness God's love and care for man. Today, the Lord still speaks through the gospel and calls His people to serve the Church. Bishop Ha encouraged attendees to cherish Jesus' words in their hearts, so that they will gain strength to walk on the path as Jesus did in the gospel. After the mass, Sr. Teresa Chan shared about her upbringing in a fervent Catholic family and she was grateful that her family did not stop her from responding to the call from the Lord. At the time when she explored her vocation, a religious sister recommended a movie called "Brother Sun, Sister Moon" to her. She was very inspired by Franciscan's spirituality in the movie and thus joined FMM as a religious sister. Jason Lee, a Diocese seminarian, said he had an ambition to be a priest since he was young. As he grew up, he thought about getting married as well. When he received his salary for the first time, he heard a small voice from his heart that spoke to him, "Jason, are you contented with just receiving your salary every month?" After he heard the voice, he started to think if there is any other way of life that will make him happier. He started to discern his vocation with a priest, and joined the Holy Spirit Seminary two years ago. Some attendees asked the speakers about vocation discernment and whether married people could join religious life.

2.4 Vocation Mass and Sharing at New Territories

Date: 21 May 2017 (Sunday)

Time: 11:00 am

Venue: St. Jerome's Church

Chief Celebrant: Cardinal John Tong,

Assisted by: Rev. Deacon Alexander Kwok, Br. Flavien Ulrich
Bouambe.

Participants : About 400 people attended the mass and about 200 people joined the sharing session after the mass.

Attendees included parishioners, members of prayer campaign, members of Serra Club. Committee members included Sr. Clement Fan, Sr. Sandra Covini, PIME, Mr. Lee Shung Tak.

Content: During the mass, Cardinal John Tong shared his vocation journey with the congregation. He was born and raised by a good Catholic family. He received education at Catholic schools. During the war, he saw a missionary who saved refugees with his unconditional love and he was inspired to become a priest because of the missionary's actions. Cardinal Tong emphasized that family is the first place for vocation formation. Both the father and the mother lay the foundation of their children's faith. When their children experience God's calling to be a religious, they need to support the children's decision when they respond to the call. Sr. Sandra Covini of PIME, originated from Italy, shared her story about her vocation formation. She was born and raised by a devoted Catholic family. When she was about 18 years old, she discovered that there were many people from different places who did not know about God and she wanted to become a missionary. Her family supported her and she entered the convent without worries. Sr. Sandra Covini pointed out that parents' role modeling and support are very important for their children's vocation formation. Young people should be aware of what is happening in the world and respond to the Lord's calling from their heart. Sr. Clement Fan from Little Sisters of the Poor was greatly influenced by the Jesuits and aspired to be a Jesuit. However, she was unable to be a Jesuit because of her gender. She visited a home for the aged and was very touched by the senior people who had sacrificed much for families and societies. She felt the importance of respecting and caring for seniors as they grow old. As a result, she joined the Little Sisters of the Poor to serve senior people.

Final Evaluation of Vocation Mass:

This year, the Vocation Mass held during the vocation month was supported and facilitated by the priests and parishioners of 3 parishes. The result of promoting the prayer campaign after Sunday masses at different parishes was positive. There was no worry about attendance of the event and the workload in organization and preparation for the liturgy was much reduced. Taking reference from the experience of the Holy Cross Church and St. Jerome's Church, organizing vocation sharing sessions immediately after the Mass gave people opportunities to clarify queries about vocation. If time and situation permits, the most ideal way is to organize sharing sessions in the church immediately after the Mass to facilitate participation of more parishioners.

2.5 “God is calling me” A Radio Broadcasting Program

Produced & Sponsored by: Living Spring Foundation Ltd.

Date: 1 May to 31 May 2017

Time: Monday to Friday at 11:05 pm .

On Metro Finance FM 104 in Hong Kong (after the 11pm News)

Theme: God is calling me!

Jesus said: You did not choose me, but I chose you.

[John 15:16]

Content: A group of religious shared on air how they had responded to God's call. Their stories were sourced either from the booklet 《百力支》 published by the Hong Kong Catholic Diocesan Vocation Commission in the year 2000, or excerpted from the Sunday Examiner articles written between 2006-2008 on how some religious responded to their call to consecrated life. Each of their stories was presented as a 3-minute radio script. Some religious did their own radio recording, others were voiced over by Anslem Tam or Vivian Hui.

Story broadcasting sequence:

Cardinal John Tong

Fr. Moses Ngai
Fr. Joseph Yim
Sr. Catherine Fung
Sr. M. Margarita Chan
Sr. Clement Fan
Bro. Joseph Chang
Fr. Slawomir Kalisz
Fr. Paul Kam
Sr. Cecilia Wong
Sr. Sania Ho
Sr. Louise Lam
Fr. Antonio Leung
Fr. Stephen Tong
Dom Anastasius Li
Sr. Luigia Mindassi
Sr. Seline Ma
Sr. Agnes Ko
Sr. Joanna Leung
Fr. Aloysius Mak
Fr. Bruno Lepeu
Bishop Joseph Ha Chi-Shing, OFM,

Evaluation:

According to the data supplied by Living Spring Foundation Ltd., the program 'God is calling me' captured an audience of 6891 people, a very high radio rating, representing 30.81% audience measurement of all the programs run by Living Spring Foundation. This satisfying result prompted us to consider adopting the same platform to promote vocation in future.

3. Meetings for Vocation Discernment

The Prayer Meeting for Boys

Around ten young men attended these meetings regularly and Rev. Joseph Liu was their Spiritual Master. Four of these ten entered the Holy Spirit Seminary in September 2017.

4. Workshop for Vocation Promoters and Animators

Date: 8 to 9 September 2017

Time: 9:30 am-5:30 pm

Venue: Honeyville Canossian Retreat House

Theme: Vocation Discernment and Vocation Accompaniment

Speaker: Sr. Clara Chiang Mercedarias Misioneras de Bérrix

Participants: 52 people including members from Holy Spirit

Seminary, 11 sisters and 5 priests from different religious institutes, missionary societies and teachers in-charge of vocation promotion at schools.

Content: Speech, group sharing, clarification, principle and method to discern spiritual calling

Evaluation: 45 attendants responded to the speech with great satisfaction. They highly complimented the speaker who has very rich relevant experience and expertise for such a professional presentation. The place was very elegant, comfortable yet not easily accessible. Hong Kong Catholic Diocese Centre was suggested as an alternative. Generally speaking, the content was too laden and the focus could only be on vocation discernment. A 3-day workshop might be more appropriate.

5. Closing Remarks

The effective promotion of religious vocations will call for a joint commitment of the whole church (Note). The growing number of the faithful participating in the Prayer Campaign For Vocation at the work of the Commission may well indicate the progressive fostering of such common concern. As stated in the preparatory document of the XV Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops on the theme “Young People, the Faith and Vocational Discernment,” young people “have a need for persons of reference, who are close-by, credible, consistent and honest” – parents and family, dependable adults, peers, priests, consecrated people. In response to this forth coming theme of the Synod, we will continue to promote religious vocation through education, liturgies, prayers and related activities. Meanwhile we hope to involve religious people of various roles and capacities in, not only showing concern and praying for vocation but also in giving witness on how they have responded to their personal calling to live a joyful gospel life in a sacrificial and faithful spirit and thus as reliable persons of reference for our young people.

(Note - Post-Synodal Apostolic Exhortation Vita Consecrata of The Holy Father John Paul II Chapter 2 no.64)

Auxiliary Bishop Joseph Ha Chi-shing, OFM
Chairperson

Sr. M. Margarita Chan, FMA
Executive Secretary

1 November 2017

6. Appendix

2016-2018 Committee Members

Bishop Joseph Ha, OFM – Chairperson

Rev. Bro. John Chong, FMS – Treasurer

Rev. Benedict Lam, Diocesan Priest

Rev. Giles Chong, OCSO

Rev. Carlos Cheung, SDB

Rev. Joseph Liu, Diocesan Priest

Rev. Deacon Simon Tam, Diocesan

Sr. Clement Fan, LSP

Sr. Catherine Fung, FDCC

Sr. Sandra Covini, PIME

Sr. Margaret Mou, SPB

Mr. Peter Lee, Serra Club

Mr. Vitus Tai, HK Central Council of Catholic Laity

Ms. Ho Tak Fan

Miss Joan Li